

MOTOR VEHICLE REGISTER PRIVACY STATEMENT

EFCO Limited (EFCO) is authorised under section 241 of the Land Transport Act 1998 to access certain information held on the Motor Vehicle Register (MVR).

EFCO's authorised access is governed by New Zealand Gazette Notice 2022-au4072 and the conditions imposed by NZ Transport Agency Waka Kotahi (NZTA).

What information may we obtain?

Where permitted under our authorisation, EFCO may obtain from the MVR the name and address of the person currently registered in respect of a motor vehicle.

The information is obtained from the MVR held by NZTA. EFCO collects and holds the MVR information it obtains for the purposes described below.

Why do we access the MVR?

EFCO may access and use this information only for the purposes permitted by its section 241 authorisation:

- when assessing an application to provide finance in relation to a vehicle, to confirm that the person registered in respect of the vehicle is the person to whom the finance is proposed to be provided; or
- where EFCO has an existing security interest registered on the Personal Property Securities Register (PPSR), or a similar security interest in a vehicle, to confirm that the person registered in respect of the vehicle is the person to whom EFCO provided finance in relation to that vehicle.

MVR information is used by EFCO for these purposes and may be disclosed where necessary for those purposes or where otherwise permitted or required by law.

Your privacy rights

You may request access to personal information EFCO holds about you and ask us to correct it if you believe it is inaccurate.

If you have any questions or concerns about EFCO's collection or use of MVR information, or believe your privacy has been breached, please contact us:

Opting out of authorised MVR access

If a vehicle is registered to you as an individual, you may ask NZTA to withhold your name and address from persons who have authorised access under section 241.

The opt-out facility is not available for vehicles registered to a company.
